Sample Size

The results of this opinion poll are based upon a representative sample of 909 eligible Irish voters aged 18 years+.

Fieldwork

As such, the results can be deemed to be accurate to within plus or minus 3.3 percentage points at the 95% confidence level. Fieldwork was conducted on an in-home, face-to-face basis over the period 23rd March – 4th April, 2023.

Location

The sample was stratified across all constituencies at 125 locations in the country with individuals selected for interview by way of Demographic Quotas (age, gender, socio-economic status) in line with Central Statistics Office (CSO) and market research industry population estimates.

Weighting

The subsequent survey results are weighted to reflect the known demographic profile of Irish adults, utilising the most recently published census population estimates from the Central Statistics Office (CSO).

Party Support

Party support levels are subsequently realigned in accordance with a technical adjustment factor, designed to smooth the effects of extreme highs and lows in support levels for individual parties as measured at a single point in time, and taking variable election day turnout levels into account.

Guidelines

All aspects of the survey, including the Party Support adjustment factor, are implemented in accordance with the technical and ethical guidelines set down by the Association of Irish Market Research Organisations (AIMRO) and the European Society of Opinion & Market Research (ESOMAR).

Party Support Adjustment Factor: Technical Note

- Predicting election results on the basis of poll data is not an exact science. All the evidence shows that support for individual parties can swing dramatically in the period between elections- very often outside the bounds of historic election results.
- What to do in these circumstances? Most polling companies in Britain and Ireland publish their raw survey results as an index of fluctuations in the emotional mood of voters. They also build in an adjustment based on a number of factors. Where we have reports of how people voted in the last general election as well as how they intend to vote in the next one we can use these data to model the likely level of swing from the last election results.
- We then add back in the forecasts of voters who have not voted last time or do not answer that particular question.
- Finally, we take into account each individuals stated likelihood of voting in a forthcoming General Election.
- This is the basis of the adjusted voting forecast in Behaviour & Attitudes polls.

Sunday Times/Behaviour & Attitudes Opinion Poll Series

Background

- This Sunday Times/Behaviour & Attitudes poll was conducted between 23rd March – 4th April 2023.
- Around the timing of this poll, housing dominated the media discourse. Every few days a media outlet reported another eviction tale of woe. Tenants protested at the Dáil to keep eviction ban in place as it was poised to be ended. The debate was quite brutal and emotively charged.
- The Government defeated the Sinn Féin bill seeking to extend the eviction ban until January 2024 by a majority of 81 votes to 67. However, the Green TD, Neasa Hourigan, voted against the Government. The Government also survived a motion of no confidence, following a lively debate. The housing challenge was kept front and centre with Sinn Féin's housing spokesman Eoin Ó Broin tweeting a picture depicting gardaí at a famine-era eviction. Ivana Bacik also added her voice to the housing issue, amongst others.
- Elsewhere the ESB's profits made the headlines, as did the level of grocery inflation. AIB debt write offs were questioned by TDs, at a time of continued banking uncertainty and interest rate increases. It feels like we have been here before.
- As a Generative AI picture of the Pope emerged in a puffer jacket, and Elon Musk and tech bosses called for a 6-month pause on artificial intelligence systems amid ChatGPT concerns, one wonders what ChatGPT would outline as potential solutions to the housing crisis. Even Chat GPT knows there is no silver bullet.

Government and Leader Satisfaction Levels

- Not surprisingly given the bruising housing coverage, satisfaction with the current Government has dropped significantly from 41% in February to 34% in April (question was not included in the March wave). This is the lowest level of satisfaction since the Government was formed. Satisfaction levels are particularly low amongst the 25-34 (26%) and blue collar (28%) voter cohorts.
- At this moment in time, 3 in 5 voters (59%) are dissatisfied with the current Government.
- Mary Lou McDonald's satisfaction rating has remained solid, dropped just two percentage points to 48%, which makes her the most popular leader in the country of those measured, following a dip for Micheál Martin.
- Micheál Martin's satisfaction rating has dropped from 52% in February to 45% in this April Poll.
- Leo Varadkar's satisfaction level has also dropped from 41% (February) to 34%. This is his lowest rating since February 2020. As Truman's Oval Office sign stated, 'the buck stops here'.
- Eamon Ryan's satisfaction rating has also dropped from 32% to 27%.
- Ivana Bacik's rating is at 41% - a drop of four percentage points.

Party Support Levels

- On the back of the vociferous debate around housing and the ending of the eviction ban, Sinn Féin's support has surged by five percentage points to 37% . They remain the most popular party. Sinn Féin support is particularly strong amongst those Irish voters aged 18-34 years (53%) – in effect those most directly impacted by the housing crisis. However, Housing is an issue that impacts all ages.
- Fine Gael support in terms of first preference vote has taken a major hit dropping from 23% in March to 15% in this April Poll. Fine Gael support has dropped across all age groups. This is its lowest standing since February 2020. Undoubtedly the lifting of the eviction ban is seen as happening on the Fine Gael watch. They are in the Taoiseach's office, and are seen as the deciding voice.
- Fianna Fáil has weathered the storm much better, with their level of support remaining stable, increasing by one percentage point to 21%.
- The Labour Party and the Green Party remain pretty steady at 4% and 6% respectively.
- In March, Social Democrat support grew by two percentage points to 4%, this jump in support has been maintained this wave.
- Aontu has also increased its support to 2%, while other Independents' support levels have also remained fairly similar to the last poll at 8%.
- Overall, total Government support continues to decrease from 52% in February, to 48% in March, down to 42% in this April Poll. It has been a difficult few months for the Government and if evictions materialise in large numbers, it could become worse.

Issues Question

- This wave we included a question to identify the top three issues facing the country at the moment.
- Almost 3 in 5 (57%), of those Irish voters aged 18+ cited the Homeless situation/lack of local authority housing as one of the top 3 most important issues for the country, and just over half (54%) cited House prices/cost of rent/mortgage repayment rates – in total 84% of the population mention any of these housing related issues as a top issue three issue for the country – an increase of 6% since October 2022. Thus the Housing issue is impacting all ages across Ireland in some way.
- Next to Housing, half (48%) mention the health service, while one third (32%) mention household bills (e.g. food, energy etc.). The latter (household bills) is a decline from 49% last October 2022.
- Clearly Housing is the most prevalent and emotive issue, as can be seen throughout this poll. With no silver bullet to the situation, this story will be centre stage for a considerable amount of time.
