Sample Size

The results of this opinion poll are based upon a representative sample of 906 eligible Irish voters aged 18 years+.

Fieldwork

As such, the results can be deemed to be accurate to within plus or minus 3.3 percentage points at the 95% confidence level. Fieldwork was conducted on an in-home, face-to-face basis over the period 27th April – 9th May, 2023.

Location

The sample was stratified across all constituencies at 125 locations in the country with individuals selected for interview by way of Demographic Quotas (age, gender, socio-economic status) in line with Central Statistics Office (CSO) and market research industry population estimates.

Weighting

The subsequent survey results are weighted to reflect the known demographic profile of Irish adults, utilising the most recently published census population estimates from the Central Statistics Office (CSO).

Party Support

Party support levels are subsequently realigned in accordance with a technical adjustment factor, designed to smooth the effects of extreme highs and lows in support levels for individual parties as measured at a single point in time, and taking variable election day turnout levels into account.

Guidelines

All aspects of the survey, including the Party Support adjustment factor, are implemented in accordance with the technical and ethical guidelines set down by the Association of Irish Market Research Organisations (AIMRO) and the European Society of Opinion & Market Research (ESOMAR).

Party Support Adjustment Factor: Technical Note

- Predicting election results on the basis of poll data is not an exact science. All the evidence shows that support for individual parties can swing dramatically in the period between elections- very often outside the bounds of historic election results.
- What to do in these circumstances? Most polling companies in Britain and Ireland publish their raw survey results as an index of fluctuations in the emotional mood of voters. They also build in an adjustment based on a number of factors. Where we have reports of how people voted in the last general election as well as how they intend to vote in the next one we can use these data to model the likely level of swing from the last election results.
- We then add back in the forecasts of voters who have not voted last time or do not answer that particular question.
- Finally, we take into account each individuals stated likelihood of voting in a forthcoming General Election.
- This is the basis of the adjusted voting forecast in Behaviour & Attitudes polls.

Sunday Times/Behaviour & Attitudes Opinion Poll Series

Background

- The fieldwork for this Sunday Times/Behaviour & Attitudes poll was conducted between 27th April and 9th May 2023.
- As we entered the field, the Housing and Homeless crisis rumbled on, with another homeless record being quoted by The Simon Community of 11,988 people, of which 3,472 were children in emergency accommodation.
- With wholesale energy prices softening, there emerge a clamour for energy companies to pass on reductions to customers. Opposition TDs were calling on the Government to 'rein in energy companies'. Meanwhile, the CRU was quoting 25% of Gas customers being in arrears.
- Food inflation continued to be significantly higher than overall inflation with the CSO estimating it to be in the region of 13%, double the overall inflationary rate of about 6%. Hence the recent effort around the Retailer Forum.
- During fieldwork, the European Central Bank raised interest rates by 25 basis points to 3.25% as expected, with ECB President Christine Lagarde signalling that more tightening would be needed to tame inflation, due to mounting wage and price pressures.
- As interest rates continued to rise, adding more pressure to households, the Government was under increased pressure to respond. Taoiseach Leo Varadkar indicated that mortgage interest relief would be considered as part of Budget 2024, albeit he was not guaranteeing such a move at this stage.
- On a more positive note, employment remained at a high level, and is somewhat a saviour in the face of the high cost of living and inflation.
- Finally, the last few weeks have seen the search for the new Late Late Show host continue, with many not fancying the gig! It will be interesting to see who will be in the hot seat grilling the party leaders in the run up to the next Election.

Sunday Times/Behaviour & Attitudes Opinion Poll Series

Government and Leader Satisfaction Levels

- The decreased satisfaction levels with the Government registered in our April poll has been maintained in May, with 35% of the electorate satisfied with the Government performance. The Government satisfaction levels stood at 41% as recently as February 2023.
- Currently 55% of voters are dissatisfied with the Government with no significant difference across voter demographics (slightly more voters have moved into don't know this wave (9%), rather than more stating dissatisfaction).
- Mary Lou McDonald's satisfaction rating has remained solid at 48% and she retains the most popular leader title, albeit by a whisker from Micheál Martin.
- Micheál Martin's satisfaction rating has increased by two percentage points to 47%.
- Leo Varadkar's satisfaction level has also increased by two percentage points to 36%. He remains some way off his 41% satisfaction rating in January/February 2023.
- Eamon Ryan's satisfaction rating is 28% (up one percentage point).
- Ivana Bacik's rating is at 42% (also up one percentage point).
- Thus, overall there has been no significant movements. The Government and its leaders are still to recover from the bruising events of April.

Party Support Levels

- Sinn Féin's party support drops two percentage points to 35%, but they continue to be the most popular party by a wide margin. Their support is consistently strong across voters aged up to 54 years.
- Fine Gael support in terms of first preference vote took a major hit dropping from 23% in March to 15% in April. They remain in the 'teens', with a two percentage point uplift to 17%. Someway off their 23% in February 2023.
- Fianna Fáil's level of support remains stable, increasing by one percentage point to 22%.
- The Labour Party is at 4% support, while the Green Party drops one percentage point to 5%.
- This May poll sees the Social Democrat support drop by one percentage point to 3%.
- Aontu is at 1%, while other Independents show a resurgence up four percentage points to 12%.
- Overall, total Government support has stabilised at 44% (up two percentage points from April), but someway off their 52% level in February. With interest rates hikes ahead of us, and inflation remaining high, it could be a 'hot and sticky' summer for the Government.
